The house cleaning season is now at its beight; this is a good time for the men folks to have important business at a distance from home that requires their absence for a week or two.

Henry Ward Beecher wants to know why the people of Bloomfield put so many loose stones in the roads; he says it does not cost much to remove them and makes a vast improvement.

The Gazette is improving every week, the only thing it lacks is the comic element, however the editor is so busy with assessments that he does not remember that everyone apr reciates fun also.

Bellevillians feel very proug of their new city; building lots are selling like hot cakes and are bringing enormous prices nothing like a city government.

The ample provision for a fire depart ment lately made in Bloomfield by the Town Committee meets the approval of all liberal citizens. In case a large fire bursts out on a windy night the inhabitants can rest assured that it will do but little dam-

The police arrangements are also first class, no danger of burglaries being attempted while this force is under such perfect discipline.

It is currently reported that ladies will make a raid on the liquor saloons of this town at an early day; all those engaged in this business are hereby notified to spill the beer and ale, on the streets and handthe liquors over to the drug stores to be sold as medicine.

What right have other folks to concern themselves about land they do not own, even if it does not pay its fair share of the burdens imposed upon all property. The schools are now in a flourishing condition; in fact it is thought by many that they flourish altogether too much with their improved pronounciation of common English words, but we should remember it is absolutely necessary to give all words that will stand it, a French twist. It is the right thing to say Chuseday for Tuesday and ither for either and ballee for callett and so on ad infaitum. It wont do in these days of progress to be behind in these matters. The children must be taught to pronounce correctly according to the notions of pedants, whether it agrees with Webster or others who used to be thought competent authorities.

Mr. James Hughes of this town will prob bly be appointed Surveyor by the Council of the new City of Belleville. They cannot make a better selection and have shown good judg ment in giving preference to this important office to one who resides so convenient to the city. Mr. Hughes will however remember that this city has already been surveyed twice and will not bear this kind of thing more then three times.

Taloumo, -At a teachers' institute in Pennsylvania, one of the speakers sensibly said that what we want is teachers that can teach of subjects not books. CLEANLINESS AND VENTILATION OF CEL-LARS. - Having lived in a large city I saw very many bad effects from foul and dirty cellars, and am sorry to say the evil is worse in smaller places owing to sanitary measures not being so strictly put in force as in many larger cities. I had occasion within a year past to go into the cellar of send some of them to Bloomfield, and there a dwelling occupied by one of our first families, and to my surprise saw rotten plank and vegetables, and other garbage sufficient to cause to increase my life policy Pish was selling altogether too chesp if I had to live and sleep over their noxhave no doubt there are many heads of families in a city of ten thousand persons' who never go into their cellars from one the Australian tree Eucalyptus Globulus year's end to the other, leaving all such into the malarious tracts about Rome, it is matters to their help. A cellar should be in such order that a person would not be afraid to sleep in it. I know of a person since who made it a point to question famwith fevers, in relation to their cellars, and many honestly thought they were in good order, when no doubt the cause of sickness arose from the foul gases from the wish you may be induced to wake up your readers to have them spend a few hours or (cause others to do it for them), to have clean cellars as well as clean drawng-rooms. - Me.
